W. D. JENKINS IS A BRIDEGROOM

WEDS MISS MAY REYNOLDS AND THEY DEPART FOR HONEY-MOON

W. D. Jenkins, foreman for West End Consolidated Mining Company, and Miss May Reynolds, were married last evening at the home of the bride in Madway gulch by Rev. R. W. Bayless. The witnesses to the ceremony were Miss Margaret Hyland and Louis S. Ross. There was a wedding supper after the ceremony in the Midway hotel. This morning the bridal pair left for the Panama-Pacific exposition for their honeymoon. Both the contracting parties have lived in Tonopah for the past nine years and a half and are both popular in the inner circle. Many friends were at the depot this morning and a shower of rice followed the newlyweds as they boarded the train.

ROUND MOUNTAIN PLACERS PAYING

LODE MINING OPERATIONS OF COMPANY ALSO BRINGING GRATIFYING RESULTS

Advices received at the main office in Goldfield upon the recently inaugurated hydraulic placer operations of the Round Mountain Mining company at its property at Round Mountain, in Nye county, Nevada, make it evident that the results being obtained exceed by 5 per cent the original calculations of James R. Davis, president and general manager. Reports as to the lode mining operations of the company, which have been in progress for years, are of the usual gratifying nature. The property, as a whole, is steadily improving its already enviable position in the mining world and the future of the company is exceedingly bright, says the Salt Lake Tribune.

From June 24, the date on which the pipe line to the property was placed in commission, until July 17, the water was used in the preparation of a tail-race below the two lines of sluice boxes, and other preliminary work. Actual hydraulic operations, with the use of one of the two "giants," were begun on the latter date. On August 2 a cleanup was made of No. 1 line of thirty sluice boxes, through which a major portion of the dirt and gravel was run from the rock above. Only a comparatively small portion of the material found its way through No. 2 line of boxes, which have not yet been entirely cleaned up.

According to information received by Secretary H. G. Mayer from General Superintendent R. H. Ernest, the cleanup from No. 1 line of boxes aggregated $14,390, which represents, at most, not more than 25 per cent of the values of the dirt washed. It has been found that from 60 to 80 per cent of the gold content finds lodgment on the bedrock above the sluice boxes. This gold will be cleaned up or recovered when the bedrock is closely sluiced after actual hydraulic operations with the "giant" or "giants" are suspended for the winter months. Sluicing operations or the cleaning up of the bedrock will proceed until late in November.

Although it will not be possible to ascertain definitely the results obtained until the end of the sluicing operations on the bedrock and in the two lines of boxes until late in November, the gold recovered in the recent cleanup of the No. 1 line of boxes affords a fair idea of the yield that can be expected. Assuming that the cleanup of the No. 1 line of boxes, amounting to $14,390, does not represent more than 25 per cent of the values, which is an exceedingly high estimate, it is safe to say that in the two lines of boxes and on the bedrock above them a total of not less than $50,990 was saved between July 13 and August 2. It is calculated that the material hydraulicked during that period, which is precisely the same as that being handled at present, is averaging at least $1.50 per cubic yard, which is 50 cents per cubic yard more than estimated originally by President Davis as the value of the dirt and gravel within the confines of the already vast proven area of placer ground owned by the company.

BOXERS GETTING IN BEST OF CONDITION

INDICATIONS ARE FOR A BIG CROWD OVER FROM GOLDFIELD

Jack Bratton and Bert Wagner, both Tonopah favorites, who are to appear at the boxing show staged by the Business Men's Athletic club at the Airdome on Friday evening, November 12, are working themselves into the best of condition daily at the Big Casino. Both boxers put on the gloves with their respective boxing partners and the fans who attend their workouts are always certain to see some lively milling.

Word received from Goldfield tells us that Eddie McAuliffe, who opposes Bratton, and Danny Mathews, who boxes the other event with Wagner, are training together in Goldfield and that a big crowd is on hand every day to see them through their training stunts. Both boys are full of confidence and can't see where they have a chance to lose. They both have a lot of friends over in the gold camp and a bigger crowd than ever attended bouts here is expected on the night of the fight from Goldfield.

The seats will be on sale in a few days at the popular prices of $1 for the bleachers and $2 for reserved and ringside seats.

TONOPAH HIGH TEAM IN STRONG REQUEST

MANY CHALLENGES RECEIVED FROM OTHER ELEVEN FOR FOOTBALL GAMES

The fame of the Tonopah football team has spread rapidly, so rapidly that offers of games must be continually turned down. The Stewart Indians have asked repeatedly for games on their own field near Carson City, but it was not until yesterday that the local coaches would consent to the match. If proper financial arrangements can be made the local lads will meet the Redskins, on the Monday following the game in Reno. Dopesters are particularly busy these days. Each evening a crowd of lookers-on gather at Recreation park to watch the work of the team. Several visitors from Reno have been among the crowd, and taken pains to assure the boys that they have all the reason in the world to hope for the championship of the state. Reno's lineup is a bit heavier than Tonopah's but the local boys have a good deal of experience now, and are particularly fast.

That the game Saturday is an important one is evidenced by the fact that Goldfield is to have a large representation in the bleachers. They realize that Tonopah is to be put to a test, and they want all the information available. Very little can be learned of the Bishop eleven, except that they have had little competition as yet, and that they are mostly large lads.

Tickets for the coming fray are going like hot cakes around Conover, John Cuddy and Milton Pollard were elected captains of the teams competing for the big party, to be given by the losing side, and each has a campaign lined out and working.

BUTLER THEATER

"The Woman Next Door," featuring dainty Irene Fenwick in a romantic drama founded on the stage play of that name, will be the attraction at the Butler tonight. In none of her other productions has Miss Fenwick been given such a splendid opportunity to display those powers which have made her one of the greatest stage stars in America. The role of the divorced actress, Jenny Gay, is especially suited to her peculiar temperament and talents. The story is familiar to theatergoers, having been one of the big Broadway successes of the past few years. Jenny Gay, an actress, is the object of the mad infatuation of Jack Lake, a promoter of worthless mines. He causes a divorce and drives her to solitude in a New England village. Tom Grayson, railroad superintendent, and Jenny afterward fall in love. Lake arrives on the scene and immediately exposes Jenny as the actress whose divorce suit had been one of the newspaper sensations of the year. From this situation many tense and dramatic moments are evolved. To-morrow, "The Cub," featuring Marjula Hedman, the distinguished Swedish actress, and a Selig Wild Animal picture. If you would like a reserved seat, phone the theater at any time; someone always there to answer calls.—Adv.

CARSON HUNTERS WILL BE ARRAIGNED THURSDAY

Five prominent citizens of Carson City, some of them state officials, will be called upon at 11 o'clock Thursday morning to answer to a charge of violating the Nevada fish and game laws. These five were caught by state deputy game wardens on Saturday evening on this side of Washoe lake shooting ducks between the prescribed hours of sunset and sunrise. Complaints against them will issue from Washoe county courts Thursday morning and they will be called upon to give an explanation of their actions that same morning.—Journal.
